THE JOURNEY IS HAPPENING NOW

IMPOSSIBLE

MOST DOCUMENTARIES TELL YOU WHAT HAPPENED.

THIS ONE IS HAPPENING RIGHT NOW.

At 28, with almost no formal combat-sports experience, Colin Dingelstad commits to learning boxing, Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, wrestling, Muay Thai, judo, and MMA from elite coaches around the world.

The ultimate ambition is to become an MMA champion and test how far disciplined effort, intelligent systems, and world-class mentorship can take a late starter.

There is no scripted outcome.

The audience does not know whether Colin will succeed, fail, adapt, or discover a limit that cannot be overcome.

THAT UNCERTAINTY IS THE ENGINE OF THE STORY.

THE CENTRAL QUESTION

IMPOSSIBLE

CAN GREATNESS BE TAUGHT?

A late-start beginner enters elite combat-sports systems to test how far world-class coaching, intelligence, repetition, and complete commitment can take him.

Each discipline tests a different part of the question:

Technique
versus talent.

Systems
versus instinct.

Discipline versus genetics.

Ambition
versus reality.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP IS THE EXPERIMENT.
THE DEEPER STORY IS WHAT THE ATTEMPT REVEALS.

THE STORY

WHAT BECOMES POSSIBLE WHEN YOU STOP STARTING OVER?

The pursuit of a championship is the vehicle.
The deeper story is conscious transformation.

AT 28, COLIN DECIDES TO STOP STARTING OVER.

01

Colin Dingelstad is not a lifelong fighter or decorated martial artist.

02

He is an entrepreneur and father who spent years moving between sports, businesses, travel, and reinvention without discovering how far he could go in one pursuit.

03

Fatherhood changes the question.

04

It is no longer only about what he may be capable of.

05

It becomes about the example his son will one day see.

WHY IT IS DIFFERENT

IMPOSSIBLE

THE STORY BEGINS BEFORE GREATNESS EXISTS.

- Most sports documentaries begin with a champion and then reconstruct the road to success.
- IM|POSSIBLE begins before the result exists.
- There is no belt.
- No guaranteed ending.
- No retrospective certainty.
- The audience watches every breakthrough, injury, fight, failure, doubt, and consequence as it happens.
- Real access to elite coaches and champions creates both an emotional human story and an inside look at how excellence is actually built.

THE PURSUIT OF A CHAMPIONSHIP IS THE VEHICLE.
THE DEEPER STORY IS CONSCIOUS TRANSFORMATION.

THE STAKES ARE REAL

IMPOSSIBLE

This is not symbolic training or a manufactured television challenge.

It includes:

- Real amateur and professional competition
- Injury, concussion, neurological risk, exhaustion, and physical damage
- Public failure in front of coaches, competitors, cameras, and a growing audience
- The pressure of balancing fatherhood, finances, identity, relationships, and complete commitment
- The possibility that the pursuit of greatness becomes destructive

The question eventually changes from:

CAN HE DO IT?

To:

WHAT WILL IT COST, AND IS THE COST WORTH PAYING? ”

THE JOURNEY

IMPOSSIBLE

A TRANSFORMATION BUILT THROUGH REAL TESTS.

1. EVALUATION

Former UFC Heavyweight Champion Ricco Rodriguez assesses whether the ambition is physically, technically, and competitively possible.

2. JIU-JITSU

Accelerated elite training making Colin go from a white belt (lowest belt) to being on the same level as competition level black belts.

3. BOXING

Serious technical development, hard sparring, and a real professional boxing competition.

4. MUAY THAI

Immersion in Thailand's fighting culture, built around the objective of his first fight in one of the most legendary stadiums in Thailand.

5. WRESTLING + JUDO

Takedowns, balance, pressure, control, and the ability to decide where the fight takes place.

6. THE MERGE

Striking and grappling are combined under MMA pressure, where every weakness can be exposed.

7. REAL COMPETITION

Amateur fights, professional progression, and the long road toward championship contention.

EVALUATE. BREAK DOWN. REBUILD. COMPETE. REPEAT.

PROJECT FORMAT

IMPOSSIBLE

IM|POSSIBLE is built for:

Combat-sports fans

MMA, boxing, Jiu-Jitsu, wrestling, Muay Thai, judo, and elite-performance audiences.

Parents and families

People who connect with fatherhood, legacy, responsibility, and leading by example.

Entrepreneurs and high performers

People pursuing difficult goals while questioning whether they started too late.

Mainstream audiences

Anyone who has wondered whether it is still possible to become who they could have been.

THE UNIVERSAL STORY IS WHY IT CAN TRAVEL.

- Combat sports provide a passionate global foundation.
- But the emotional story reaches far beyond MMA.

DISTRIBUTION STRATEGY

A MULTI-STAGE STRATEGY BUILT TO CREATE VALUE BEFORE, DURING, AND AFTER RELEASE.

REAL-TIME AUDIENCE GROWTH

Build the audience throughout production through training footage, interviews/podcasts, short-form storytelling, and behind-the-scenes access (social media).

FESTIVAL LAUNCH

Pursue prestige documentary, sports, and combat-sports festivals while protecting premiere eligibility.

STREAMING + TELEVISION

Use the completed series, festival response, growing audience, and TriCoast relationship to support acquisition and licensing conversations.

GLOBAL + LONG-TAIL

Extend through international broadcasters, transactional platforms, airline entertainment, educational licensing, and continuing digital content.

PROSPECTIVE PLATFORMS

Netflix • Amazon Prime Video • Apple TV+ • Hulu • Roku • Tubi • International streaming and broadcast outlets

WHY BRANDS BELONG IN THE STORY

THIS IS NOT TRADITIONAL ADVERTISING.

Partners can become part of the systems, tools, travel, training, recovery, and technology that make the transformation possible.

AUTHENTIC USE

Products and services appear inside real training, travel, recovery, production, and competition.

REAL VALUE

The audience sees what the brand helps make possible, not simply a logo inserted into a scene.

LONG-TERM STORYTELLING

Partner exposure can begin during production and continue through digital content, competitions, press, festivals, release, and long-tail distribution.

NATURAL ALIGNMENT

Resilience. Ambition. Discipline. Purpose. Fatherhood. Human potential.

A partner is not being asked to sponsor "an MMA documentary."

The opportunity is to support a global transformation story with a passionate built-in niche and the potential to reach the mainstream.
